Introduction on the “Eurasian Countries International Student Scholarship” Program

In order to deepen educational exchanges and cooperation with Eurasian countries, and serve the development of the “Belt and Road” Initiative, the Ministry of Education of China, in collaboration with Heilongjiang Province, has established the “Eurasian Countries International Student Scholarship” Program.

From 2026 to 2029, this program aims to provide scholarship opportunities for students from Eurasian countries, namely Russia, Belarus, Ukraine, Georgia, Armenia, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Moldova, Azerbaijan, and Mongolia (13 countries in total), to pursue studies in Heilongjiang Province. The program plans to fund 20 undergraduate students, 100 master's students, and 30 doctoral students annually. The scholarship will comprehensively cover tuition fees, accommodation fees, living expenses, and comprehensive medical insurance.

Higher education institutions in Heilongjiang Province eligible to enroll students under this scholarship program include: Harbin Institute of Technology, Harbin Engineering University, Northeast Forestry University, Northeast Agricultural University, Heilongjiang University, Harbin Normal University, Harbin Medical University, Heilongjiang University of Chinese Medicine, Qiqihar University, Mudanjiang Normal University, Jiamusi University, Harbin University of Science and Technology, Heihe University, Harbin University of Commerce, Qiqihar Medical University.
